Head Coach Gene Chizik

Improvement in the Cyclone football program under Chizik was immediate. Chizik's first ISU team beat rival Iowa and made steady progress throughout the season.

Iowa State closed out the 2007 home season with wins over Kansas State and bowl-bound Colorado, affirming the major advances the Cyclones made on both sides of the ball. Iowa State fans embraced Chizik. Cyclone backers bought a school-record 36,000 season tickets in 2007 and posted the school's best home game attendance average (49,462) since 1982.

Chizik came to Iowa State after two years as the assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas. Working for former Iowa State assistant coach Mack Brown, Chizik was on the coaching staff of the Longhorns as UT went undefeated at 13-0 en route to the collegiate national championship.

Chizik had been defensive coordinator at Auburn, where his unforgiving defenses set a standard for the rest of the country. In 2004, the Tigers gave up an average of just 277.62 yards of total offense per game. During one amazing stretch, Chizik fashioned a personal 29-game winning streak between Auburn and Texas' national championship seasons in 2004 and 2005, respectively.

Chizik is a 1985 graduate of Florida. A former third-grade teacher, Chizik stepped into coaching at Clemson (1988-89), Middle Tennessee State (1990-91), Stephen F. Austin (1992-97) and Central Florida (1998-2001) before heading to Auburn in 2002.

STORY LINES

1. CHIZIK IN SECOND SEASON

Gene Chizik, 2-4 this season, is still the man. One season after being tabbed as Iowa State's head coach, Chizik is continuing to build the ISU football program in his image. Chizik's Cyclones won two of their last three games of 2007, including erasing a 21-0 half-time deficit to defeat bowl-bound Colorado. Iowa State's 2007 wins came over in-state rival Iowa, and back-to-back Big 12 victories over Kansas State and Colorado, the first time a Cyclone team had won consecutive conference games since 2005. Iowa State's 2008 season-opening wins over South Dakota State and Kent State gave the Cyclones four straight home wins. A defensive wizard who was defensive coordinator at Auburn and Texas, Chizik oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Cyclones' performance. A defense that had been ranked 102nd nationally in 2006, improved to 65th.

2. DEFENSE SETTING UP OFFENSE

A defense that has forced 17 turnovers has given the offense a short field to work with over and over again. The Cyclones have 12 scoring drives that took less than two minutes off the clock. ISU is tied for first in the Big 12 and is T-11th nationally in turnover margin. Its 17 forced turnovers is tied for sixth in the nation.

3. FROSH MAKE MARK

Iowa State's true freshmen have made big contributions this fall ... WR Darius Darks is third on the team with 19 catches for 168 yards, including six receptions for 84 yards against Kansas ... WR Sedrick Johnson has eight catches for 83 yards and two scores ... CB Leonard Johnson has 22 tackles and is 24th in the nation, averaging 26.5 yards per kickoff return.

4. ARNAUD GETS THE NOD

The sophomore from Ames has started the first six games of the season at quarterback. He has completed 102-of-169 passes for 1,087 yards and eight scores. Against Kansas, Arnaud set career highs in attempts (27), completions (45), yards (268) and touchdown passes (3). Arnaud led Iowa State on a 9-play, 98-yard TD drive in just 1:03 with no time outs at UNLV to force overtime.

5. RUSHING IMPROVEMENTS

From day one, Chizik has made running the football a priority. That commitment has seen the Cyclones make huge strides in that area. In 2006, the season before Chizik arrived in Ames, Iowa State averaged 101.8 yards on the ground. That number was improved to 123.7 yards last season. This year the Cyclones are averaging 131.8 yards rushing through the season's first six games. Iowa State's 229 yards vs. South Dakota State was the team's best effort on the ground since netting 229 yards vs. Kansas State in 2005.

The Cyclones don't have one back who is putting up huge numbers, but are getting production from several different people.

Alexander Robinson leads the team with 230 yards on the ground this season after being ISU's top rusher in 2007 as a freshmen. He ran for 74 yards in the season opener against South Dakota State and added 51 yards and a score against Kansas.

Quarterback Austen Arnaud had 147 yards on the ground and leads the team with four touchdown runs.

Senior J.J. Bass has played in four of ISU's six games, but has 100 yards and a score. Bass has 76 yards on 19 carries over the last three games.

Reserve Jason Harris has the team's longest run of the season, a 68-yard scoring jaunt against SDSU.

6. MAHONEY MAKES GOOD PK DEBUT

True freshman Grant Mahoney has made all 19 of his extra-point attempts, as well as 10-of-14 field goal attempts. He hit on a 37-yarder in OT at UNLV. He connected on a career-long 48-yard field goal against Kent State. Mahoney ranks first in the Big 12 and 14th nationally, making 1.67 field goals a game. He is also 11th in the Big 12 in scoring, averaging 8.17 points per game.

7. JACK TRICE STADIUM FACELIFT

Under the leadership of Athletics Director Jamie Pollard, the home of Iowa State football is getting a face lift. Pollard spearheaded a $19.5 million first-phase remodeling project that included the renovation/construction of suites and the addition of restroom and concession buildings on the west concourse. The Jack Trice Club section on the stadium's east side was also entirely renovated. A $5 million gift from Richard Jacobson announced last week will allow the renovation of the stadium's east concourse.

8. SUMRALL'S TIME TO SHINE

Senior R.J. Sumrall led Iowa State with four receptions for 104 yards and two scores against Kent State. Those touchdowns were the first of his Cyclone career, coming on career receptions 104 and 105. He added a career-high 10 receptions for 106 yards against Kansas. He has 126 grabs on his career, good for joint sixth on the all-time ISU receiving charts, and his 1,457 receiving yards is seventh in school history.

10. ENDS MAJOR FORCE FOR ISU

Senior defensive end Kurtis Taylor has made his way from special teams player to one of the top linemen in the Big 12. He is joined by Christopher Lyle to form one of the most formidable defensive duos in the Big 12. Taylor, a Fort Dodge native, was second in the Big 12 in sacks a season ago with 6.5. This season he has three sacks and eight tackles for loss. He also returned an interception 48 yards against SDSU, putting a spin move on the quarterback to gain a final couple yards.

Lyle, who was previously best known for blocking a field goal in ISU's 15-13 win over Iowa in 2007, leads the Cyclones with four sacks and also boasts seven tackles for loss.

11. ISU NETS RECORD RETURNS

Iowa State had interception returns by Devin McDowell (3), Kurtis Taylor (48), Austin Alburtis (61), Michael Bibbs (53) and Derek Schmidgall (37t) against SDSU. The Cyclones' 202 interception return yards crushed the previous team record of 167 set against Northern Iowa in 1945. The five interceptions were the most by an Iowa State defense since the Cyclones had five interceptions at Kansas on Nov. 17, 2001.

12. BIG KICK RETURN IMPROVEMENT

There has been more bad than good over the last decade for ISU kickoff returners but it has been a solid area for the Cyclones this year as Iowa State is sixth in the Big 12 and is ranked 30th nationally, averaging 23.27 yards per return this season.

Leonard Johnson is the man behind the return improvement. The true freshman from Clearwater, Fla., is averaging 26.5 yards per kickoff return. That ranks 24th nationally and is fifth in the Big 12.

Iowa State 44

South Dakota State 17

Aug. 28 • Jack Trice Stadium • Ames, Iowa

AMES, Iowa -- The turnovers were big. Iowa State's defense forced six turnovers, including five interceptions that led to 20 points as ISU prevailed over South Dakota State 44-17 in its season opener. The five interceptions by ISU was the most since picking off five passes at Kansas in 2001. The Cyclones also shattered the school-record for interception return yards (202), besting the old mark of 167 set against Iowa State Teachers College (Northern Iowa) in 1945. The Cyclone offense was sharp right out of the gates, scoring on their first drive of the season with an eight-play, 69-yard series. An Austen Arnaud 24-yard pass to tight end Collin Franklin was the big play of the scoring drive that was capped off by an Arnaud 1-yard sneak to push ISU out in front 7-0 with 11:30 left in the first quarter. SDSU QB Ryan Berry threw three interceptions inside the Iowa State 25-yard line. Interception returns of 48 yards by DE Kurtis Taylor and 53 yards by LB Michael Bibbs set up field goals by true freshman Grant Mahoney. Mahoney hit on field-goal attempts from 35, 36 and 30 yards in his collegiate debut. DT Austin Alburtis' 61-yard interception runback set up a 14-yard TD toss from Phillip Bates to true freshman Sedrick Johnson in the second quarter that gave the Cyclones a 20-0 halftime lead. Arnaud and Bates combined to completed 13-of-19 passes for 159 yards and each had a TD pass. ISU TB Jason Harris had a 68-yard TD dash that made the score 44-9 with 6:29 left in the game. Derec Schmidgall had a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown. Iowa State put up 229 yards rushing on 42 carries. Bibbs added a game-high nine tackles to his interception return. A crowd of 46,617 saw the game on a warm evening in Jack Trice Stadium, which boasted new suites, a remodeled Jack Trice Stadium Club and a much wider west concourse. Iowa State did not punt in the game, the first time that had occurred since Oct. 21, 1989, against Oklahoma.

ISU recorded 40 points for the second consecutive game, marking the first time a Cyclone team has scored 40 or more points in their first two games since 1976. ISU scored 21 unanswered points going ahead 21-7 at the end of the first quarter. ## Iowa State 5

Iowa 17

Sept. 13 • Kinnick Stadium • Iowa City, Iowa

IOWA CITY, Iowa -- Iowa State's football team had its chances at Iowa. Six times it marched past Iowa's 30-yard line, but came away with just three offensive points to show for it. Iowa drove 65 yards in six plays for a fourth-quarter score and added an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown to seal the Hawkeyes' fourth win over the Cyclones in 11 years, a 17-5 decision in Kinnick Stadium. Iowa State outgained Iowa, 325-244 but simply could not get to the endzone when it had to. Cyclone quarterback Austen Arnaud hit on a career-high 21 completions in 34 attempts for a career-high 224 yards but threw two interceptions, one in the end zone. The score was locked 3-3 early in the fourth quarter. After a 15-yard pass play and a controversial 15-yard penalty against the Cyclones, Iowa's Shon Greene made runs of 20 and five yards, the second carry for a touchdown that gave Iowa a 10-3 advantage with 12:56 left in the game. Iowa State countered as Arnaud marched the Cyclones down the field to the Iowa 29. But his third-down pass intended for Marquis Hamilton was incomplete, forcing ISU to attempt a field goal, which Grant Mahoney missed from 46 yards out. The two teams traded drives before Brodell returned a punt 81 yards for a touchdown to give Iowa a 17-3 lead. Iowa State once again drove down the field to the Hawkeye 4-yard line for the second time in the game, but Arnaud's pass to Houston Jones on 4th-and-4 was incomplete and the Cyclones turned the ball over on downs. The Cyclones got a safety with 28 seconds remaining to conclude the scoring. Jones grabbed six receptions for a career-high 67 yards. Greene rushed for 120 yards and a score for Iowa. Iowa won the rushing yards tally, 122-73. ISU linebacker Michael Bibbs intercepted Ricky Stanzi's throw at the ISU 28 late in the third quarter. Mahoney hit on a 45-yard field goal attempt to knot the score 3-3 after a four-play 2-yard drive with 25 seconds left in the third quarter. Bibbs finished the game with a game-high eight tackles. After Arnaud was intercepted at the Iowa 1-yard line, the Cyclones started the next drive 1st-and-10 at the Iowa 26-yard line. ISU drove to the Iowa 4-yard line and Mahoney's 21-yard field goal attempt hit the upright with 2:56 left in the third quarter.
